About INFLIBNET

The Information and Library Network (INFLIBNET) Centre is an autonomous Inter-University Centre (IUC) of the University Grants Commission (UGC) located in the Infocity, Gandhinagar. Major activities and services of the Centre are geared towards modernization of academic libraries and information centres, promotion of information transfer and access, support scholarship, learning and academic pursuits. The Centre acts as a nodal agency for networking of libraries and information centres in universities, institutions of higher learning and R & D institutions in India. The Centre was established as an independent autonomous Inter-University Centre of the UGC in May 1996 and set out to be a major player for promoting scholarly communication among academicians and researchers across the country. With technology being a driving force in the contemporary education system, the INFLIBNET Centre has taken up a number of initiatives for the benefit of the academic community in India.

About Central University of South Bihar, Gayaji

Central University of South Bihar, Gayaji, India, is one among 54 such universities of the Federal Government, which come under the purview of the Department of Higher Education under the Ministry of Education of Government of India. It was established under the Central Universities Act, 2009 (Section 25 of 2009) as Central University of Bihar (CUB) and the name since changed by the Central Universities (Amendment) Act, 2014 to Central University of South Bihar (CUSB). It is an institution of higher learning in the state of Bihar. With the motto, i.e. 'Collective Reasoning' the University has been conducting its academic and administrative activities from a permanent campus on a 300 acre plot of land at Panchanpur, situated about 15 kms away from Gaya town.

The University has been accredited A++ grade by NAAC and UGC has also provided Category -1 status. It has also been ranked well in NIRF rankings.

About Rajarshi Janak Central Library, Central University of South Bihar, Gayaji

The Rajarshi Janak Central Library (RJCL), ensconced within the academic precincts of the Central University of South Bihar (CUSB) in the historically resonant city of Gayaji (Gaya), stands as a paragon of intellectual fecundity and scholastic gravitas. Named in veneration of the sagacious monarch Rajarshi Janak, an emblematic figure of wisdom and philosophical profundity, the library embodies an enduring commitment to the cultivation of critical thought and academic excellence.

Equipped with avant-garde infrastructural amenities such as Koha ILMS (Integrated Library Management Software), e-resources, remote access, RFID-enabled circulation services, Yoga Corner, Indian Vedic Gallery, Faculty Publication corner, Educational Library games; the RJCL exemplifies a confluence of tradition and innovation. Its ambience, suffused with contemplative quietude, is conducive to rigorous inquiry and intellectual rumination.

Furthermore, the library is instrumental in catalyzing research synergies across departments, hosting a plethora of academic symposia, bibliographic exhibitions, and literary discourses. As a citadel of learning in one of India's most spiritually and culturally rich locales, the Rajarshi Janak Central Library continues to fortify the academic sinews of the university, galvanizing scholars, savants, and seekers alike in their odyssey towards enlightenment and erudition.
