About INFLIBNET

The Information and Library Network (INFLIBNET) Centre is an autonomous Inter-University Centre (IUC) of the University Grants Commission (UGC) located in the Infocity, Gandhinagar. Major activities and services of the Centre are geared towards modernization of academic libraries and information centres, promotion of information transfer and access, support scholarship, learning and academic pursuits. The Centre acts as a nodal agency for networking of libraries and information centres in universities, institutions of higher learning and R & D institutions in India. The Centre was established as an independent autonomous Inter-University Centre of the UGC in May 1996 and set out to be a major player for promoting scholarly communication among academicians and researchers across the country. With technology being a driving force in the contemporary education system, the INFLIBNET Centre has taken up a number of initiatives for the benefit of the academic community in India.

About Central University of Punjab (CUPB)

The Central University of Punjab (CUPB), established in 2009 by an Act of Parliament, has made significant strides over 14 years. Accredited 'A+' by NAAC in 2023, CUPB has consistently ranked among the top universities in India, securing positions like 95th and 83rd in the NIRF rankings from 2019 to 2024. Renowned for its research funding and commitment to innovation, the university utilizes e-governance through the Samarth Project, training staff in 21 administrative modules. Originally starting in a three-room office, it now boasts a 500-acre eco-friendly campus in Bathinda. CUPB offers PG and Ph.D. programs across 31 departments and 11 schools in fields such as Sciences, Technology, Humanities, and Law. With a diverse student body, the university emphasizes outcome-based curricula, research, entrepreneurship, and social outreach, while promoting indigenous sports and environmental awareness.
